

Top 10 Questions

CARROLL GRIFFIN COMMUNITY GROUP

- How much time is this going to take? 6:00 – 7:30 on Sunday evenings.
- What are we going to do with our children during group meetings? We have grandchildren! They don't attend.
- Will there be homework? If so, how much? Never!
- Am I going to have to talk or can I just sit and listen during meetings? Some listen but most are all trying to talk at the same time!
- Will I have to pray out loud? No, we do have time for prayer but no one is ever asked to pray unless the leader knows they are comfortable with praying out loud.
- Who else is going to be in the group? Men and women who are in a similar stage of life.
- How much do I have to know about the Bible? Bible knowledge is not a requirement.
- How many weeks or months is the group going to last? We meet during the Fall and Spring.
- If I don't like it, can I leave without people being angry with me? Yes, but we hope you love it.
- What are we going to do during meetings? Talk about the morning message and learning to apply those Scriptures to our lives; pray for each other with life problems; then just enjoy each other's company – and end with great desserts!